

Divine Feminine

Catalyst

Motivation to lead: Community, connection, love.

Gifts: Master gatherer of people, catalyzes transformation and connection, uses feminine powers of charm, beauty and seduction (magnetism), natural rhythm of flow, infuses pleasure into life/ creations.

Challenges: Diffuse awareness (needs some structure), can feel misunderstood, when low on self-care can be judgemental and difficult.

DIVINE FEMININE REFLECTION QUESTIONS:

1. What is it about the Divine Feminine energy that feels both mysterious, energizing and magnetic?
2. What does being in flow look and feel like for you in your day-to-day and in your business?
3. When did you finally stop trying to do things the conventional way and start trusting in your own flow to live, love and lead?
4. What do you love about your ability to create communities that support the greater good?
5. What self-care practices do you lean into to stay grounded, nourished and energized?
6. How have you learned to keep yourself in flow? How do you navigate some of your challenges such as over-giving, trying to do everything yourself and fear of trusting others?
7. What is your advice for other Divine Feminine leaders in general? What is your advice to Divine Feminine leaders looking to create their own generative communities including possible archetypal pitfalls?